

FERRAGAMO

Paola Caramella

Paola Caramella graduated with honors (110/110 cum laude) at the University of Florence– Faculty of Law in 1981.

She has been practicing civil law in Florence ever since her admission to the Florence Bar in 1984, focusing especially on corporate law. She has been advising clients on the most diverse commercial law issues and has acted as counsel in numerous court cases as well as in arbitration proceedings.

She was appointed by the Ministry of Cultural Heritage and Activities and Tourism (Italy) first as member of the board of directors and then as Vice-President of the Scuola di Musica di Fiesole in Florence, a renowned school of music. She was also member of the board of the Fondazione Il Fiore in Florence, a non-profit organization active in the field of poetry and literature.

She is currently member of the board of directors of Immobiliare Vigna Nuova S.r.l..