

FERRAGAMO

Stefano Capezzuoli

Graduated with honors in Economics and Business from the University of Florence, he is registered with the Siena Register of Chartered Accountants and Auditors and the Register of Legal Auditors. He began his professional career in Florence at the “Bompani ed Associati” Tax Firm from 1994 until 1999.

At the same time, he opened a tax and corporate practice in Poggibonsi (SI), taking on assignments in insolvency proceedings opened in the Court of Siena, with particular reference to compositions with creditors and bankruptcies, both as Judicial Commissioner and Judicial Liquidator, some of which are still open today.

He also provides consulting services on tax, organizational, and corporate matters for private companies, including ordinary and extraordinary business transactions and company valuations.

He is particularly active as a court-appointed technical consultant and party-appointed technical consultant in both criminal and civil proceedings, particularly in bankruptcy, corporate, and banking litigation.

He also serves as a statutory auditor and auditor for joint-stock companies operating in both the real estate and industrial sectors.
