

FERRAGAMO

Francesca Michela Maurelli

She holds a degree in Economics and Business from Sapienza University of Rome and an MBA from LUISS University. She is a Chartered Accountant and Statutory Auditor and serves as a subject matter expert in Business Administration at LUISS University.

In 1996 she began her professional career at KPMG Advisory S.p.A., in the Financial Services and Corporate Finance divisions. Since 2004, she has been in private practice, also collaborating with leading professional firms and focusing her work on strategic matters, corporate governance and internal control systems. She is a Technical Consultant and Expert Witness for the Court of Rome.

She is also a member of the CNDCEC Commission on the “Conduct Rules for Boards of Statutory Auditors of Unlisted Companies.

She currently serves as a non-executive board member and statutory auditor in listed and unlisted companies, across the banking (supervised ECB) and industrial sectors, including Sabaf SpA, Crédit Agricole Italia SpA, Crédit Agricole Auto Bank SpA and World Duty Free Italia SpA.