

FERRAGAMO

Antonio Gullo

Full Professor of Criminal Law, Deputy Rector for Education and Dean of the Undergraduate School at Luiss University.

At the same institution, he is Director of Research Center in Law and Governance: Compliance, Security and Sustainability and Director of the postgraduate Masters in Business Criminal Law, in Compliance and Prevention of Corruption and in Cybersecurity: Public Policies, Regulation and Management and in Artificial Intelligence: Technology, Regulation, Ethics and Society.

During the Monti government, he was first Legal Counselor of the Minister of Justice, Prof. Paola Severino, and then State Undersecretary for Justice.

He is member of the board of directors of the journals Rivista italiana di diritto e procedura penale, Diritto penale contemporaneo – Rivista trimestrale, Diritto commerciale e delle obbligazioni and Rivista trimestrale di diritto penale dell'economia.

He coordinated research units in numerous projects of international and national relevance.

He has served, and currently serves, as President of the Supervisory Body (Organismo di Vigilanza) in several Italian companies, including listed companies.

He is member of the Board of Directors of the AIDP and President of the Italian Group of the same Association.

He authored 2 books and more than 100 scientific publications on criminal law topics.